October Meeting Minutes

Location:

American Legion Post 1
7811 Davenport St. Omaha, Ne 68114
In attendance were 27 Brothers.

Monsignor Gilg started meeting with the opening prayer followed by the pledge of allegiance.

Meeting Minutes from last month were approved.

Treasurer reported on the first quarter. The division will pay for the AOH/LAOH tables for the Durham Christmas event and the Ladies will decorate them for us.

The Pro-life Committee urged all brothers to vote pro-life in the upcoming election.

John Farnam thanked everyone for their help at the Golf Tournament. There were over 70 players. Checks are still coming in and it was estimated that around $3000-$3500 was probably made. There were a lot of raffle items that were not picked up by the end of the tournament, including several bottles of liquor.

Chris Blaylock updated the division on the Parade Preparations. All the law enforcement agencies have confirmed that they will march along with most of the fire departments. Some new entrants are the Greek dancers and the Scottish Society. The parade booklet advertisement sales are going well. The three most expensive ads have already been sold. These ads cover the cost of the book. The idea for the division to hand out small Irish flags to people watching the parade was discussed.

Dion Nary gave the Honor Guard Report. The belts for the honor guard uniforms have arrived. Need one honor guard member to attend the Durham Christmas event to man the tables. Dion also thanked the brothers for supporting Big Red Rugby. He reported that some of the girls on the AOH team are trying out for the national team.

Shane Bretey has AOH Shirts and Patches for members to buy.

The Hibernian Picnic had 30 brothers and guests show up. Fun was had by all. Next year a cabin will be rented for the picnic.

Larry Bradley discussed returned to the idea discussed at the previous month's general meeting of buying a St. Patrick Statue for the division. He brought up the idea of the brothers donating half of the cost and the division paying for the remainder. He offered to donate $500 to this purchase. Some discussion was held. The topic was left open, and discussion will continue at the general meeting next month.

The Hibernian Banquet was discussed. We will have the same menu as usual. The cost of tickets will be $55 per ticket.

The upcoming Madonna Christmas Party was discussed. The tentative date for this event is 12/9. Pizza juice will be provided. The division will present Madonna with $500.

Since there were only one person per position the vote the AOH Officer Positions was by acclamation. Vote was unanimous to accept the slate as given. Below is the list of the officers for the coming year:

Sentinel: Jeff Johnson

Marshall: Shawn Murphy

Grievance Committee: Dion Nary

Treasurer: Tom Simpson

Financial Secretary: Dan Esch

Recording Secretary: James Buescher

Vice President: Chris Blaylock

President: Tim Lonergan

Monsignor Gilg closed the meeting with a few prayers, the singing of "The Soldiers Song" and the National Anthem.

Did you know?
Many claim the shrine is a repository of faith, hope, and love, as well as a source of divine strength. It was actually built by St. Ignace to house the remains of the Holy Trinity, and here, these things, the faith, the love, and the Holy Spirit could be separate entities, but one in the same.
