Newsletter Notes:

We say goodbye to November and welcome December and all the blessings the Christmas season brings with it. November, however, saw a lot of activity for our division. First and foremost being Irish Charities of Nebraska began to give out donations to various charities across Omaha. This is the heart of us being a division in keeping with the Irish spirit of paying it forward, remembering our past struggles and our meteor-like ascension into the American ecosphere.

December looks to be a busy month so here is a run down of what to expect.

December 5th Durham's Cultural Holiday Special. Which is always a fun event that allows us to show off our Irishness as well as experience all the other ethnic cultures that make up our communities.

December 12th Madonna School Christmas Party with AOH. This has been described as the best event we do in any given calendar year. The glowing hearts of each member who attends can't be matched by anything else we do.

December 13th AOH 3rd Annual Christmas Party. This growing phenomenon will have a new but familiar location at the Legion Hall Post 1 off of 78th and Davenport. This fun event will start at 5pm and will go as long as the night lasts.

Slainte!

November 2025 Events

Irish Charities Treasurer Tim Donegan presented a $3000 check to Heart Ministry Center.

Heart Ministry does the Lord's work in helping those in the Omaha area struggling with food Insecurities.

Brother Bob Sullivan presented a $3000 check to Bethlehem House.

Bethlehem House has done the Lord's work in helping struggling single mothers make the best choice of life.

And best of all for AOH Celebrated Hugh Spellman's Birthday. Happy Birthday again Hugh!

AOH President, Jeff Johnson presented a $400 check to a new benefactor, Once upon a Meal
