Newsletter Notes:

Our general meeting for January took place on January 14, and while most of us assume January is a bit of slow month for our division overall the agenda was chalked full of news and upcoming events. These include but are not limited to the AOH Banquet on February 21, 2026 parade preparations and fundraising news, and finally but most importantly the LAOH\AOH National Convention which is less than 6 months away.

We encourage our members to come to all meeting regarding all of these events so they are in the know with regards to what they can do and how they can help.

Also in January we had another successful Bar Crawl that took place on January 10, that went to Underwood Bar, Dundee Cork & Bottle, Maloney's Irish Pub, and also The Brazen Head. Fifteen to Sixteen brothers and family members attended this fun event.

February also looks to be a busy month. We have the annual St. Brigid's Mass at the Columban Father's Mission on February 7, the banquet on the 21, along with all of our regular monthly meetings.

Slainte!
