Newsletter Notes:

As I write this, we are only a short time away from the biggest event of the year. As always, the St. Patrick's Day Parade is an all-hands-on deck affair for our group. As our esteemed leader, Chris Blaylock, says many hands make light work. So please start thinking about showing up to Rocco's at 8am on the morning of the 14th to help in anyway you can.

Breakfast will be served to all block captains and parade leaders. As always drinks will be available too but you will need to pay for those as you go. With the barking and order giving out of the way we would like to congratulate James Buescher and all the award winners for a glorious banquet.

The color presentation was great, the food was great, the keg of Guinness was sucked down like we were a frat house. The dancers were great and who doesn't love Fr. Tom Fangman. What a great ambassador for the Irish community in Omaha.

We would like to also extend our deepest condolences to Brother Mike Addy and his family at the loss of his Dad and fellow AOH member John Addy.

John was a great Hibernian and a good friend to many in our membership.

Personally, I would like to reflect that it was he, Mike and Bob Race that welcomed me first to becoming a Hibernian 5 short years ago..

Rest In Peace dearest John... You will be sadly missed.

Let's be ready to go on March 14th and make this the BEST PARADE EVER once again!

Let's have a great month of March!

Slainte!
