Newsletter Notes:

Just like that, parade season has come and gone. Huge congratulations to several folks who made it all happen. First, to Chris Blaylock for helping pull off one of the biggest and best parades I've seen in my time as a director of this great event.

Also, a big shoutout to Dion Nary, Shane Bretey, and the members of our Honor/Color Guard. They always make us look sharp, and the 32-country flag display was an outstanding addition to making this the BEST PARADE EVER!!!

April will be a lighter month for us, so it's a great time to get together—whether that's a happy hour or lunch. We've also got some new sponsors this month, including Sgt. Pepper's, Tracks, and Dundee Cork & Bottle.

We've included several photos from the parade—hope you enjoy them. Thanks again to everyone for your hard work in making March and our big day a roaring success.

Slainte!
