Newsletter Notes:

Due to a large gap in communications on my part we haven't actually published our monthly newsletter since May. That is entirely my fault and an assumption I will not make again. For that I apologize. With that said, October officially begins parade season for 2027. We have had 2 meetings already and feel like our goals are lofty but very much attainable with the crew we have assembled. October will also be election month for our new list of officers. We actually have a contested position up for grabs with our Sentinel position. So come ready to vote on October 14th for that important position.

We would also like to note that on October 23rd we will have a special event at Meadowlark Lounge on 33 and Leavenworth St. We are hoping for a good showing for this as Coach (Pat Ivers) has worked hard to get these guys lined up to support us for 2027. Please consider attending!

Lastly as you are reading this. Please keep fellow brother Phil Rooney's family in your thoughts and prayers. Phil is in grave condition and was recently issued his last rights. We pray for his family in this very sad and difficult time for them.

We look forward to seeing you all at our October events and please reach out with questions.

Slainte!
